

Chaplain Keith D. Morrison has served in the Fire Service since 1981 and retired in May 2015; 26+ being with the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department. Keith is a certified paramedic, has an Associate's Degree in Fire Science, Northern Virginia Community College and a Bachelor's of Science at Liberty University College in Multidisciplinary Studies; Business, Health Sciences and Christian Counseling. He is Commissioned Minister at his home church Chapel Springs Assembly of God Church in Bristow VA. He currently works at Reston Hospital Center in Reston VA as the Director of Emergency Preparedness Coordinator.