

Chaplain, Smith T Banks II Employed by Fairfax County Fire and Rescue since June 1991 and retired in January of 2020 as Hazardous Materials Technician assigned at Fire Station 40. Smith was born in Washington DC and educated in the DCPS system. Smith graduated from Liberty University with a BS in Biblical and Theological studies. Smith was ordained as a Deacon in his home church Zion Baptist Church of Eastland Gardens in October 2006 was licensed to preach on January 6, 2013. Subsequently ordained in June of 2018 as Reverend, he later was installed as Pastor in March of 2019 of the church his grandmother started attending at the age of 4.